

Lord, I Don't Need

By Ben Townsend

Christians are searching for new things that dazzle and are bright;
But they don't search the Word of God to see if it's wrong or if it's right;
A brand new touch or feeling; one new tongue or two;
Lord, thanks for the old-time salvation, so I don't need anything new.

Chorus: Lord, I don't need a new touch, for Your hand has never left me;
Lord, I don't need a new faith; just the old faith will do;
Lord, I don't need new revelations, for the Old Book is true;
Lord, I don't need a new joy, just my old joy renewed.

For it's the old-time salvation, from an old, old rugged cross;
It's the old Ship of Zion that keeps me safe from waves that toss;
It's the same old Holy Bible that tells the old Gospel true;
It's the same old Blood of Jesus that made my sinner's heart brand new.

Chorus: Lord, I don't need a new touch, for Your hand has never left me;
Lord, I don't need a new faith; just the old faith will do;
Lord, I don't need new revelations, for the Old Book is true;
Lord, I don't need a new joy, just my old joy renewed.
