

Rom. 8:28

We find ourselves in situations that we just cannot understand.
And when we search for explanations, in love God says, "This is my plan.
And I lead in ways you just don't know of. Your life through trials I refine.
If you will only learn to follow and rest within my will divine.

Chorus: For we know that all things work together,
We know that all things work together;
They work for good to them that love the Lord, and for everyone,
Everyone called according to His Word.

There are times when we feel discouraged.
Sometimes we lose the ones we love so dear.
Our minds are often torn and troubled.
Sometimes we think our hearts will break for fear.
But we should never be discouraged.
Someday in His likeness we shall be.
Someday we'll know just as Jesus knows us.
Some soon we'll understand and see.

Chorus: For we know that all things work together,
We know that all things work together;
They work for good to them that love the Lord, and for everyone,
Everyone called according to His Word.
