

We Are Home - Key of C, Db, D

By Roger Bennett

Laughing like children at the foot of the throne,
Praising the Savior who brought us safe home;
Raising and adoring His ever blest name,
The great Lamb of Calv'ry, forever the same.

We are home, Safely home,
The sacrifice given, my sins all forgiven,
Calvary has won, we are home.

(Db)

For years we had lived in a place not our own,
Occupied country, the enemy's throne;
Never belonging and so out of place,
Constantly striving to finish the race.

(D)

Now we are standing as trophies of grace,
Anxiously waiting a glimpse of His face;
The veil has been lifted the glass has been cleared,
With loud Hallelujahs, the King has appeared.

We are home, Safely home,
The sacrifice given, my sins all forgiven,
Calvary has won, we are home.

(How beautiful Heaven must be, Sweet home of the happy an free;
Fair haven of rest for the weary, How beautiful heaven must be.)

(Eb)

We are home, Safely home,
The sacrifice given, my sins all forgiven,
Calvary has won, we are home.
